

Report Issued on State Policies on Provider Market Power

The National Academy for Social Insurance and Catalyst for Payment Reform have released a new report entitled “State Policies on Provider Market Power,” that examines common threads among states’ laws in addressing healthcare competition. The Source collaborated with CPR on the underlying research for this important report.